DR. HERBERT C. DOBRINSKY
VICE PRESIDENT
FOR UNIVERSITY AFFAIRS

February 27, 2004

To the American Committee
for the Preservation of the Land and People of Israel

On behalf of the YU Student Organization, I wish to thank you for your prompt response, on very short notice, to our appeal for contributions towards the expenses for more than 100 YU students to go to The Hague last weekend for a brief, but important and meaningful expression of their and our support for Israel. The reports indicate that our students did YU and the Jewish people proud!

Your most generous gift of $20,000.00 on behalf of the American Committee for the Preservation of the Land and People of Israel, was essential to the success of this effort, and I am pleased to enclose our official receipt for your records. This contribution will remain anonymous in all listings as far as you personally are concerned, and only the name of the organization will be listed.

With every good wish for a joyful Purim celebration, I remain

Sincerely yours,
